

IASK Workshops

If a workshop is of interest to you and there is not one scheduled, please email us iask@kent.gov.uk

If you belong to a Kent support group, service or school, you can request a session, providing there will be more than eight people who would like to attend. We can also offer a bespoke session for your group – please email us iask@kent.gov.uk

Here is the list of our workshops that we can deliver either virtually or face to face in your local community (when it is safe to do so):

SEN Support in mainstream nurseries, schools and colleges (Duration 2 hours):

For parents, young people and practitioners. Explaining the support that should be provided for children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities. The session explains the graduated approach, reasonable adjustments and where to find further information.

Education, Health and Care Needs Assessment (Duration 2 hours):

For parents or young people who have been advised that a needs assessment may be necessary, or for those who have been on our SEN Support workshop.

Transition to Adulthood (Duration 2 hours):

For parents, young people and practitioners. Explaining Post 16 options and rights of the child/young person.

Annual Review of an Education, Health Care Plan – (Duration 90 minutes):

For parents and young people. This explains the law about the time frame of annual reviews and how to be prepared to give your views.

Parents Participating Confidently: Interactive workshop delivered face to face over 2 days: Minimum 8 parents, maximum 15. For parents who want to be able to confidently participate in meetings and also in shaping local services, representing the views of other parents. By attending the course you should:

- Feel confident to have your say
- Be able to express your views to make a difference
- Use the skills you have learnt to prepare for meetings effectively
- Understand how you can shape local services

Please contact us to discuss.
